TWO FOR B. JARVIS

By BOUVERIE

N EWMARKET is still full of the fine "comeback" achieved by Bobsleigh; so full, in, deed, that there is a distinct danger of the proper Derby perspective being lost-for the time being at any rate. I am a great admirer of Lord Derby's colt, but I am not going to forget how Bahram treated him in the Guineas . *

 Bobsleigh has obviously made big strides since the first classic. Equally obvious is the fact that he had to do so to become a serious rival to Bahram at Epsom. After all, the latter was also making his first appearance of the season in the Guineas; he did win in frre-proachable style, and he is still unbeaten. Do not think I am "crabbing" Bobsleigh, but it is as well not to allow enthusiasm to blind hard facts. hard facts.

Assignation Upset

Lord Derby had his third "winner a day" when Fairhaven won the Payne Stakes yester-day to supplement the successes of White Clover and Bobsleigh. Conceding 9lb. to Assig-nation, he upset the odds laid on Donoghue's mount so easily that like the Aga Khan Lord Derby may also have two strings for his bow at Epsom. Pry II is the only other Derby horse that has won over a mile and a half this season.

Even as a long shot Assignation appears a forlorn hope for Epsom, and it looks as if we shall have to wait for the Lingfield Trial before finding the likely "outsider" so dearly loved in the Derby. The Aga Khan has his "whole fleet" engaged next week, but if they are all absent who knows that there will not be another April the Fifth among those that will turn out?

Two Home, One Beaten

Gordon Richards brought off a first and last A provide the second structure of a first and last race double on Newmarket and Radamedes. He was also expected to win the Wilburton Handicap on Technotracy, whose Esher Cup third appeared to give her a splendid chance. At six furlongs she was certainly going like a winner, but from that point she began to weaken, and Double Up caught Boston West in the last stride to make a dead-heat.

T. Lowrey, who is now getting the riding his ability merits, also had two winning rides on Crosspatch and Pike Barn—both trained by Basil Jarvis. Old Melody looked like giving Crosspatch plenty to do going into the Dip, but when the grey really got going she polished her off as easily as she had done at Epsom.

To-day's Prospects

GATWICK

Gatwick has two particularly interesting races this afternoon—the Alexandra Handicap and the Home-Bred Cup Fox Lair is expected to go close in the latter race, but there is noth-ing like following a stable in form, and chiefly for that reason I prefer Quashed, from Stanley House. Another is that she ran well behind Bunker on her last appearance.

* If Subrosa stays six furlongs she will not be far away in the handicap. This course, how-ever, is pretty severe, and it is for that reason I prefer Pomme d'Amour, who would have been nearer than fourth in a similar race at Newmarket if she had been better drawn. The consistent Appian Way should be placed.

Blackmail has gone to Haydock from New-market for the Our Welcome Stakes, and a repetition of her Victoria Cup form should make her a winner. Coreopsis and Feldspar are Lambourn runners with bright chances, though I rather doubt that the latter will be quite good enough against Propaganda in the Makerfield Handicen. Handicap.

Caymanas (last year's winner), which has again been entered for the Royal Hunt Cup at Ascot.

BEST FROM THE BOOK On his form at Newmarket and Derby ACCIDENTAL should win the Scurry Plate at Haydock Park to-day. PAGE BOY.

STABLE NEWS

Likely Winners at Gatwick and Haydock Park

NEWMARKET, Thursday. Headquarters will be represented at both Gatwick and Haydock Park to-morrow.

At the first named meeting the Alexandra Three-Year-Old Handicap is the Alexandra Three-Year-Old Handicap is the chief event. The two top weights, Alykhan and Subrosa, are very well fancied, but they have plenty to do. Felswood could not have gone on better since he just failed to win the Risby Handicap at Newmarket. He must require beating for this

On her form in the Victoria Cup, Blackmail must be noted for the Our Welcome Stakes at Heartman.
