FAILURE OF ANOTHER BIG RACE HOPE

O'GRADY NOT GOOD ENOUGH

Almond Hill Defies Top Weight

NEWBURY HINTS

By BOUVERIE

CATWICK has not been a lucky meeting for thorses in the forefront for the autumn double. On the first day Chrysler II, then favourite for the Cesarewitch, bit the dust; yesterday O'Grady. who had been given much Cambridgeshire prominence earlier in the week, was among the a.so rans in the Redhill Handicap. Some excuses have been found for Chrysler's failure, but if any are put forward for O'Grady I shall forget them, just as I propose to do in the case of the Cesarewitch horse.

O'Grady was set a big task yesterday, but it was no more than he is asked to accomplish at Newmarket. Almond Hill, carrying the steadier of 9st. 7lb., gave him 17lb. and won easily. The difference between them at Newmarket is only 3lb. more, and Aimond Hill's weight includes a 5lb. penalty earned at Derby soon after the weights for the Cambridgeshire were published.

Lambourn Pleased

Vitality, who finished second to Almond Hill, is also in the Cambridgeshire, but with a further 6lo. the worse of the weights at Newmarket his chance of turning the tables is not apparent. But even if Almond Hill goes for the Cambridgeshire, it is on the cards that her trainer, Captain O. Bell, will have a better one at the weights in Finalist, so that nowhere was yesterday's result appreciated quite so much as at Lambourn.

O'Grady was always well placed and had every chance had he been good enough. The same applies to Shrewton, who, with Gay Adventure, Fillip and Vitality, was as prominent as anything in the early stages. Biding his time, H. Wragg saved Almond Hill for a final effort in the last quarter of a mile, and when it came she overhauled the leaders to win in great style.

Strong Finish

Although O'Grady let them down, Frank Bullock and W. Sibbritt, his son-in-law jockey, did not have a blank day, as Corrin Cottage found an easy task in the Bridge Handicap. This winner, who finished much too strongly for Nepcote, is owned by the wife of a well-known Tattersall bookmaker, and no doubt will be heard of again in this class of event.

The other selling race gave Richards the first half of another double—completed later by Solerina—and Crataegus his sixth second in his last seven attempts. Doric stayed on well enough under pressure against Major Beatty's luckless youngster, and as she had previously won easily she has evidently lost the dislike she showed for the game at Birmingham earlier in the season.

Stable News

NEWMARKET'S BEST FOR NEWBURY

NEWMARKET Thursday.
The Newbury meeting is one that the Newmarket trainers have never patronised to any great extent, and it was a little surprising to find eleven departures this morning.
In the Lambourn Handicap our runners will be Priok and Vermeil II. The first-named has run below form in his last two races. However, he is a Royal Hunt winner and he is now very well.

well, Vermeil II has been off a racecourse for quite a long while, but by the way he has gone in recent gallops I believe he is back to form again. However, Priok is likely to prove our best.

Grand Duke has done well in home gallops recently, and will require beating in the High-clere Nursery, and Silver Birch, from the same stable, is expected to be thereabouts in the Foal Plate.
Following her prominent display at Doncaster, Flamonaise should require some beating in the Letcombe Nursery.

HEATHMAN.

NEW FAVOURITES

Doreen Jane and Finalist Now Lead the Way

Two new favourites were found for the autumn double when the card on the Cesare-witch and Cambridgeshire was called over last night.

From 10-1 Chrysler II drifted out to double those odds, and Doreen Jane was made favourite at 100-8. Shining Cloud, in the same ownership, but trained in a different stable, was backed at 100-7, at which price Lucky Patch was also supported.

Finalist, the new favourite for the Cambridgeshire, is a stable companion to Almond Hill, who was an easy winner at Gatwick yesterday. Prices:—
